IMPORTANT NOTE: The accounts that you wish to link together for Overdraft Protection MUST have the same ownership. Example: Bob and Mary Customer on the checking account must have Bob and Mary Customer or Mary and Bob Customer as owners on the credit product that you want to use as the account to protect your checking account. Authorized Users on a credit card or Premier Line Account do not qualify as an account owner. If you have questions regarding the account ownership on your accounts please contact your banker for assistance. They will be able to assist you by explaining your options if you do not have the correct ownership for the Overdraft Protection option.
